ROBERT MATTHEWS DEAD.—Mr. Robert Matthews, formerly a well known salesman for a Cincinnati firm through this section, and who was stricken with paralysis some time since at his home in Lexington, died recently at Lebanon, Ind., his former home, to which place he had been removed after the attack. He was a very popular traveling man and made many friends in Kentucky. He was a nephew of the late Thomas A. Matthews, formerly of this city, and a cousin of the late Governor Claude Matthews, of Indiana.—Mynsville Ledger.

Mr. Matthews was first stricken at this place while on a business trip. He was an excellent gentleman.

E. L. & A. T. BYRON, Successors to J. A. Ramsey & Co.

PROMPT TREATMENT SAVED IT.—On Wednesday afternoon of last week (Chas. W. Nesbitt) a 2-year-old son, James Monroe, pulled open a drawer, found a small vial of chloroform and drank the contents. The preparation is said to contain morphine and other toxic ingredients. A physician was hurriedly called, and in six minutes from the time the child swallowed the poison the doctor was evacuating his stomach. Any delay would have been fatal, as the poison would have been absorbed into the system. After emptying the stomach, strong coffee was administered, hypodermic injections of potassiumate of potassium solution were made, and every sort of expedient devised to keep the child awake and alive. The little fellow was saved, though he was considerably swollen next day. It was a narrow escape indeed.

TOBACCO SALES.—Geo. A. Peed's purchases: on White Oak, John B. Jones' at 7c and 4c; H. M. Butcher and Vene Hawkins' at 5c and 6c; on Flat Creek, James Williams' at 6c; on Upper Prickly Ash, Hamilton & Tackett's at 5 1/2c; on Jones' Branch, Stephen Reynolds' at 6c; S. N. Cassidy's at 6c; on White Oak, George Anderson's at 7c; near Stepstone, Ewell Payne's at 7c. Thos. Gray's (of Flemingsburg) purchases: on Upper Prickly Ash, Thos. Everman's at 8c; Marshall Stone's at 7c; David Stamper and C. R. Scott's at 7c; Wm. McCarty and C. R. Scott's at 7c; Jeff Davis' at 8c.

Robertson Bros' (of Bethel) purchases: near Sherburne, 10,000 lbs. of Charles Newcomb and tenant Whitaker at 5c straight; 3,500 lbs. of Charles Newcomb at 7 1/2c; three crops of S. J. Vice and tenants—two at 5 1/2c, the other at 6c; 1,000 lbs. of Nick Rodgers at 6c; 2,000 lbs. of Frank Eason and William Lynam at 5c; near Bethel, 15,000 lbs. of Thos. Arnett and tenants at 5 1/2c; one crop of Mack Cline at 7c; on White Oak, John T. Gudgell's at 6c; Samps Parvis' at 4 1/2c; near town, 2,000 lbs. of T. W. Ewing and Thomas Stone at 5c, less 100 lbs.; on Prickly Ash, Ewing Conner's at 5 1/2c.

MANLY TIMES.—In reply to the request of James Ross, our former, for a sample copy of the first newspaper printed in English at Manila, the metropolis of the Philippines, three copies of the Times were sent him. It is a daily, selling at 10 cents per copy, $20 per year, in Mexican money, or half in U. S. money. It is an interesting paper, and apparently prosperous, since it carries about five columns of ads. to each column of reading matter. Considerable prominence is given to the beer, liquor and tobacco trades among the ads.

Bob Brother and George Dawson have remodeled the feed stable formerly occupied by W. B. Arnold and C. C. Hazlett. They have replenished their corn, oat and hay bins and are fully prepared to take care of a horse. When you come to town stop with them.

GRADUATED.—Dr. Everett Perry, son of W. W. Perry, returned home Friday with a diploma from the Ohio Dental College conferring the degree of Doctor of Dental Surgery upon him. Dr. Everett has taken a thorough course, practicing during vacation with his uncle Dr. Thomas Cooper, at Little Rock, Arkansas, and one summer by himself at Salt Lake, this county. The course at the College is eminently practical, and when a student is graduated he is at once a theoretical and practical dentist, competent to pursue his profession anywhere. Dr. Everett has secured the room lately occupied by Dr. Andrew Boyd and will open out a dental office.

WORTHY OF HIS GOOD FORTUNE.—The will of the late Purse P. Ewing was offered for probate in the County Court Monday. The entire estate is bequeathed to testator's nephew Courtlandt Lee, son of Mrs. Charles Lee (nee Della Ewing), of near Paris, Bourbon county. The estate consists of one third of 955 acres of land, contained in the home farm and a tract on Mill Creek, and a large sum in cash or its equivalent. It is a handsome inheritance for a young man, and with his intelligence, good business capacity, excellent morals and general promising character, it is confidently expected by his friends that he will add largely to it by prompt good management.

Henry and Miss Desdemona Ewing bought out Mr. Lee's interest in the lands, live stock and bank stock and paid him for it. He returned home this week.

"How fading are the joys we date in youth," said a poet. Like apparitions soon and gone; But those which seemest take their flight. Are the most exquisite and strong; Like angel's visits, short and bright, Mortality's too weak to bear them long.

Phoned by the cruel and relentless hand of death, like a bud just opening to be caressed and kissed by the gentle rays of a springtime sun. Philosophers may speculate, and dogmatize, as they will, but the fact remains, stern and stubborn, aside from Christian ethics, death still remains "the King of Terrors." How doubly sad it seems that a human life with almost infinite possibilities should terminate upon the very threshold of existence! But perhaps it is best; we cannot fathom with our wisdom, which at best is but ignorance, the plans and purposes of the Infinite. We only know that the Great Teacher and Exemplar of mankind said, in words as tender and sacred as a kiss of love, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." Every father and mother that has lost a child will cherish these words as the sweetest and most fragrant flowers in the urn of memory. This unconditional invitation of the Christ to children will doubtless comfort and cheer the saddened hearts of Jefferson Dawson, Jr., and his wife (nee Miss Mary Warner), who are now mourning for their little daughter Eliza Louise, who is not, for God took her." This little girl, who stayed so short a time on earth, had entwined herself around the tendrils of the hearts of her father, mother and grandparents as only a child can. She was born Feb. 12th, 1890, and died April 26th, 1899. The circumstances surrounding her death were peculiarly sad. With her parents, she had fallen asleep seemingly in good health, but while the parents were wrapped in slumber a messenger from the skies came and claimed the sweet, unsullied spirit of their child. As gently and peacefully as the life ethereal lights along the sky at close of day passed this little child up to God who gave it. There was no struggle, no pain, but a quick transition to fields of life and light! The parents have new interest in Heaven now. A little angel of God awaits their coming.

"There is a reaper whose name is Death. And with his sickle keen, He reaps the bearded grain at a breath, And the flowers that grow between, 'Said he, I have naught that is fair, 'Save brought that bearded grain? Though the breath of those flowers is sweet to me, I will give them all back again.' And the mother gave, in tears and pain. The flower she did most love; She knew she would find the flower again In the fields of life above."

And so, may the parents and grandparents be comforted by those words. A FRIEND.

CLIFFORD'S LUCK.—Evansville (Ind.) Courier.—Edgar Durre, prosecutor elect, announced Saturday night that he had decided to appoint Clifford T. Curry his deputy. The appointment will take effect in October when Mr. Durre will assume his office.

The appointment is one that will give general satisfaction. Although Mr. Curry has been a resident of Evansville only about two years, he has made numerous friends and in the court room has shown himself a capable, hard working attorney. The defense of the negro, Virgil Jackson, recently on the charge of murder, placed Mr. Curry and his partners in the front rank of criminal lawyers in Evansville.

There were many applicants for the position and the choice of Mr. Curry will be somewhat of a surprise. He has been a strong worker in the republican ranks ever since he came to Evansville and on the score of party services can probably claim as much as any of the younger republicans.

Clifford T. Curry was born in Owensville, Bath county, Ky., in 1873, and moved with his parents to Lebanon, Ohio, in 1889. He is the son of Dr. G. M. Curry, a prominent physician and surgeon of the latter place.

He received his academic education at Bath Seminary in Kentucky, attended the public schools of Cincinnati, and the National normal university of Lebanon, Ohio. He studied medicine but becoming dissatisfied with that profession entered upon the study of law in the spring of 1893. He graduated in the law department of Columbian university of Washington, D. C., in the spring of 1897, and was admitted to practice before the local bar in the same year, forming a partnership with his present partners, Van Pelt and Menfort.

CORPUS DAY NOTES.—Monday was the first Court day for a long time that the weather was pleasant. There was a big crowd here, and much business done.

The 125 cattle offered were all sold at good prices.

Latham & Crouse sold to F. M. Ewing 24 steer calves at $21 per head.

A few shoats were offered and sold.

Some horses, mostly plugs, changed hands.

Three good stallions were noticed in the horse show. Dr. G. W. Conner's J. S. Brown is a splendid animal. He and a number of his yearling colts were on exhibition and attracted much attention and favorable comment. He stands on Upper Prickly Ash this season.

John R. Vice's Red Bill, of near Bethel, is another fine horse, and also J. R. Corbin's Sorrel Bill, sired by Red Bill, making the season near Bethel.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—Whereas, I am informed by Mr. W. E. Estill that he is accused and believed by many to have been the person who informed on the raiders in the spring of 1897, I take this method of avowing that I knew nothing of Mr. W. E. Estill's connection with that affair, if any, and that he was not the person from whom I got information of the raid. But that I received the information from three different sources, entirely unconnected, and that Mr. Estill was in no position, as far as I know, to have any information whatever about it.

W. S. GUNDELL.

Owensville, Ky., April 11, 1899. It has been reported that Will E. Estill was the man who informed on the tollgate raiders, and his friends feel that he is very much wronged. The men who know where that information came from deny the charge and positively assert that Will E. Estill was not connected with that affair. I have known him from boyhood and those who know him well do not understand how any man could accuse him of such a thing as treachery.

Kentucky Crop Report.

Condition of Crops and Live Stock April 1st, 1899.

Reports were received this month from 161 correspondents, representing 101 counties.

WHEAT.

The absence of growing wheat during the month of March has left the situation of the fate of the late wheat crop in a state of uncertainty, which is still reported excellent, and in a few counties, where the major portion of the crop was sown early, the prospect for a full average crop is good. Severe freezing while the soil was saturated has further weakened the vitality of the plant, and were it not for the remarkable recuperative qualities so often shown by wheat, the prospect of receiving any return from a considerable percentage of the acreage. A number of correspondents report that the acreage will surely be reduced by plowing up and sowing to other crops. We would advise that ample time be given for development before resorting to this measure. All vegetation is fully one month late, and the prospect should be judged accordingly. Heavy rains have also damaged the crop by washing gullies in the rolling lands and by overflying the bottoms.

The condition April 1st averages 77 as compared with normal years, a loss of three points since March 1st. The average condition on this date for the past three years has been as follows: 1898, 101; 1897, 94; 1896, 89.

The western section shows the lowest average condition, 69. In the central section the average condition is 78; in the eastern the condition is 85. The condition in the western section has suffered a loss of 1 point since March 1st; the central a loss of 8 points and the eastern a loss of 3 points.

OTHER CROPS.

THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 1899.

ARKANSAS soaked the insurance combine, and is terrifying the trusts generally with the vigor of her anti-trust law. It is not the damage they may receive in that State that hurts the trusts so much, but the fear that the example may be followed generally in other States.

A TRIST is said to have cornered the supply of broom corn and advanced the price $10 a ton. The wileys, who straddle their broom-handles to traverse the skies and sweep the cob-webs therefrom, might take a notion to tend to the trust, and where would the trust be then, poor thing?

In the free-silverites charged with bribery at the recent Frankfort Railroad Commissioner convention are proved guilty they ought to be sent for an infringement of bribery rights by the gold-bug hirelings of the money power. According to the silverites bribery is peculiarly a gold-bug practice. Chickens have a way of coming home to roost.

EX-CONGRESSMAN TOM JOHNSON, of Cleveland, O., is one millionaire that entertains socialist beliefs and hopes. He foresees the time when the people will ride free on the street-cars. That time may come, but with it must come, sooner or later, the perfect relinquishment of the people's freedom. It is within the people's power to barter their birthright of freedom for the state's guarantee to them of subsistence and an equal share of the good things, but when they do it they must henceforward be the perfect slaves of state, their lives regulated and directed more minutely than any body of slaves were ever controlled. Socialism is alluring when only superficially considered, but when a great thinker like Herbert Spencer with irresistible logic shows to what it must inevitably lead it is seen to be a frightful abyss, and if the people ever take the plunge into it all individuality and all progress will be more effectively subverted than under any social organization yet essayed by a great body of the people.

The givers of the Jeffersonian Chicago Platform Dinner at New York next Saturday have neglected to state whether it will be a fifty-cent dollar dinner or a two-hundred-cent dollar dinner.

Mr. Horn had an easy thing of it at the second district convention at Frankfort to nominate a Democratic candidate for Railroad Commissioner, getting it on the first ballot. Mr. Horn as a legislator has been rather hostile to the railroads.

The Cuban assembly having dissolved, Gen. Gomez is casting about to satisfy the Cuban people on a programme of independence and the early withdrawal of the U. S. forces. It is full time the Cubans were demonstrating their ability for self-government. The longer it is delayed now the more difficult will be the organization of a stable government, and the more they are helped by the United States the less self-reliance will be developed among them.

JOHN PETER ALLEGED and his Waterloo—or, rather, Peterloo—at the Chicago Mayoralty contest. Although the National Democratic Committee hailed him as the Chicago Platform candidate, Carter Harrison, Democrat, was elected. The vote was: Harrison, 116,911; Carter, Republican, 107,391; Alleged, 65,101. Alleged was more responsible for Bryan and the Chicago platform than any other leader. The news of the extinction of his leadership will not likely be agreeable to Bryan.
